I'll Knock a Homer For You

Monday, October 6th

2:00-3:00 PM • Grow Hall

The Timeless Story of Johnny Sylvester and Babe Ruth' won the Award for 'Home Grown Documentary Feature' at the 2013 Garden State Film Festival. I can remember my father telling me the story of Johnny Sylvester and Babe Ruth when I was a child. Babe Ruth promised to hit a home run for an ailing boy named Johnny Sylvester during the 1926 World Series. The Babe later visited Johnny at his bedside in Essex Fells, New Jersey to cheer him up. From this charmed sequence of events, a legendary story was born.

Chakradance – Movement for Mind, Body & Soul

Every 1st & 3rd Tuesday

October 7th and 21st

11:00 AM-12:00 PM • Grow Hall

A healing movement practice that combines music, guided imagery, and free-flowing dance to help you reconnect with your inner self. Each session is designed to balance the seven chakras (the body's energy centers) through rhythm, sound, and motion. No dance experience is needed—just a willingness to move in your own way. In a safe and supportive space, you'll release stress, boost energy, and experience deep relaxation and self-expression. Come as you are, leave feeling lighter, freer, and more aligned.
